

Instructions: Please answer the following questions.

2) Making explicit connections to Foucault, Butler, and Muñoz, describe the theories that are being made by Maroon Abolitionists who appear in Sudbury.

3) How do the testimonies from Bakari, Kimberly Nixon, Nancy Burholder, Dee Farmer and Alexis Giraldo, described by Oparah, represent challenges to heteronormativity?

4) Describe or map out the processes and structures that the state uses to oppress trans and nongender conforming people of color, as described in both articles.