Instructions: Please answer the following questions.

1) The term Two-Spirit was created at a North-American Indigenous Queer gathering in 1990 to distinguish Native people from non-Native LGBT and queer movements. Briefly describe the history of Indigenous gender and sexuality since colonization, up to current struggles, that appears in the reading.

2) Discuss the connections between Native and African-American oppression through gender and sexuality.

3) A Queer, Two-Spirit, African-American, Person of Color, and/or Trans Person enters a restroom at a mall in La Jolla. Discuss the history of intersecting oppressions that enhance that Person's likelihood of experiencing violence, private or state-sponsored.
